2021 VIRTUAL ANNUAL CONFERENCE

DR. CHRIS KUEHL
Life on the Other Side:
What Does the Economic Future Look Like?

Tuesday, February 23
12:00 – 1:00 p.m. CT

Presentation Overview

This presentation will focus on change in the economy since the pandemic. What has changed and what will change back? We know that some of what we did will be forever altered and some of what we once did will be eagerly embraced when the opportunity presents itself. We also know that some changes will be permanent and have been welcomed. What can we expect from the consumer, the manufacturing, the service sector as a whole and government? What does global trade look like? What is happening with construction, transportation, finance, and many other sectors forced to adjust and change in response to the pandemic recession.
